

Stacey Ksionda

Stacey Ksionda is a licensed hearing instrument dispenser and has been with Texas ENT and Allergy since 2005. Stacey was licensed through Texas's State Committee of Examiners in the Fitting and Dispensing of Hearing Instruments. This license entitles her to complete comprehensive hearing evaluations and dispense hearing instruments in the state of Texas. She is a member of the Texas Hearing Aid Association (THAA). Stacey was born and raised in Bryan/College Station, and attended Texas A&M University upon her graduation from Bryan High School. She graduated from Texas A&M with a Bachelor of Science in Health, and a Minor in Business Administration. She was a member and officer of Eta Sigma Gamma, an honor society for Health majors, and in 2004 was named "Gammian of the Year" for her outstanding service to the organization. Stacey attends numerous conventions each year to expand her knowledge in the growing and ever-changing field of hearing instruments. She is committed to serving residents of the Brazos Valley to improve quality of life through hearing. Stacey is married and enjoys spending time with her husband at Texas A&M sporting events, at the lake and with their church.
